

Elbit Vision Systems wins Orders from two Leading European and US Aerospace Manufacturers

Achieved orders for Ultrasonic Inspection systems totaling $2.2 million

Qadima, Israel – July 2, 2008 - Elbit Vision Systems (OTCBB: EVSNF) today announced that it has won two orders for multiple ultrasonic inspection systems, totaling $2.2 million. Both are initial orders from leading aerospace manufacturers, one of which is based in Europe and the other based in the United States. Both are new customers for EVS.

The Company will supply these companies with inspection systems for the mission critical task of checking for structural flaws in aircraft materials and jet-engine parts, prior to assembly.

David Gal, CEO and Chairman of the Board, “Both these orders are for multiple systems with new customers, both leading aerospace manufacturers. While expanding our customer base, these orders demonstrate the growth potential in our markets, as well as our competitive advantages. These customers are a new reference for us and demonstrate our success in continuing to win additional business in the aerospace sector.”
